

Laetitia Maklouf at W6 Garden Centre

Press release
25 April 2014

Seed-sowing workshop with Laetitia Maklouf 10th May 2014 at 2.30pm

Having authored two books on how to create stunning gardens, Laetitia Maklouf has established herself as an inspirational gardening expert. She regularly blogs, appears on TV and writes a gardening column for The London Magazine.

West Six Garden Centre is delighted to be hosting Laetitia's guide to seed sowing. Whether you are looking to fill gaps in your borders or to grow flowers for cutting, Laetitia's advice will help set you up for successful sowing.

Laetitia will share her experience for sowing, both good and bad, and will be giving a practical demonstration to demystify the process.

The event includes a full and interactive workshop, all the materials needed to make a fantastic flowering mini-garden from seed for attendees to take home, a worksheet to take away with further information as well as W6's now famous refreshments.

Spaces are limited so places are available on a first come, first served basis. The charge is £10 per person to be paid on the day. To book your place, please email info@w6gc.co.uk.

Notes for editors:

West Six is a life-enhancing garden centre located on the corner of Ravenscourt Park between Hammersmith and Chiswick. Opened in March 2011, West Six is sister to North One Garden Centre, which since opening in 1998 has established itself as London's leading garden centre.

North One Garden Centre was voted Urban Garden Centre of the Year in 2013, 2011 and 2007 was included in Time Out's 100 Best Shops in 2012.

For further information, please contact Emily Shaw, via email: emily.shaw@n1gc.co.uk.